BEST ONLINE VIDEOS

The Internet is filled with video. However, much like an American Idol audition session, 90 percent of it is junk. But eGuiders.com separates the bookmarks from the must-deletes, scanning the Net for the best clips and posting them by category (animation, comedy, etc.). And if you're thinking "What do they know about quality video?": They know. The site is backed by David Milch (Deadwood) and features guest recommendations by such TV experts as Lost producer Damon Lindelof, The Shield creator Shawn Ryan, and even Zack Whedon, who co-wrote with brother Joss the ultimate Web series, Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog.
